BuyList App
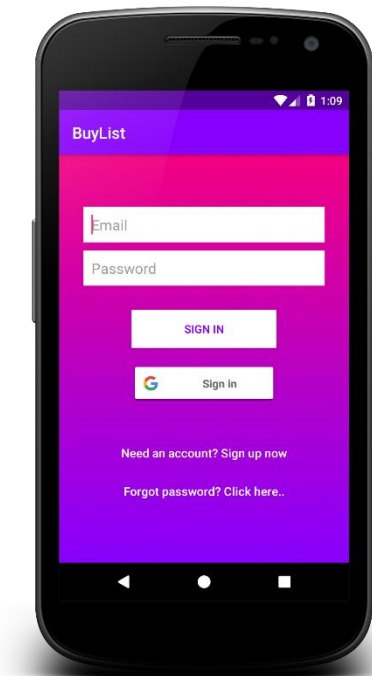

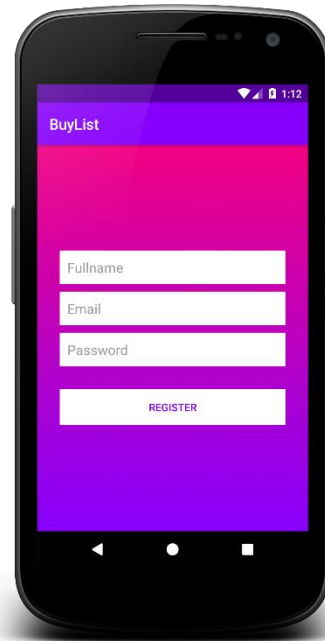

This is an Android App named "BuyList" and the zip file including:

1- The "BuyList App". It has the actual code of the application.

2- The project notebook. It has the documentation reports of the application for each sprint.

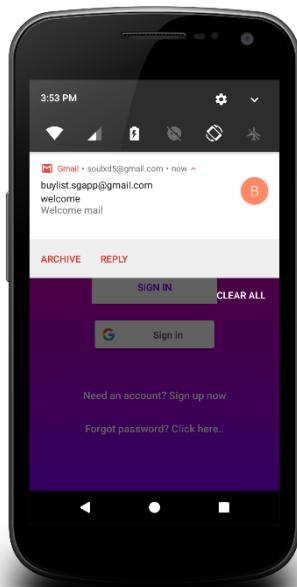

(1-1)

After installing the application, the user need to sign in by two ways. The first way, the user is able to sign in directly by using he/she Gmail account. The second way, the user can sign in by using any email account he/ she like to use. To do the second way, the user has to create his account by clicking on "Need an account? Sing up now" button (1-1). Then a new screen is going to show (1-2).
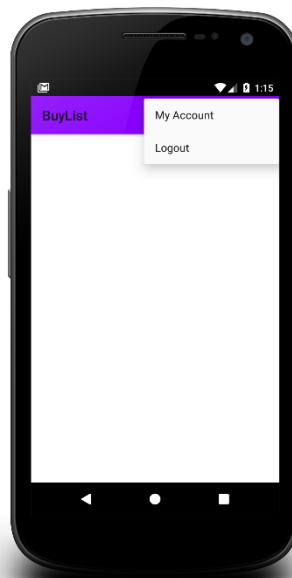

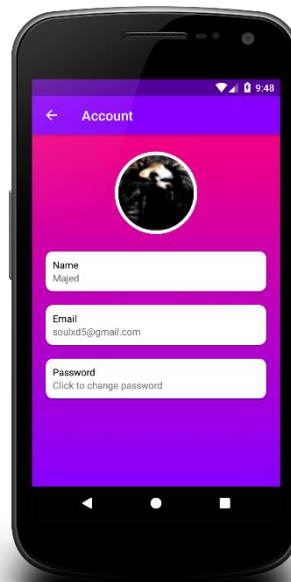

1

(1-2)

As shown in (1-2), the user must fill all the account fields like his/her Fullname, Email and password. Then the user must click on the "REGISTER" button to create the user account. After finishing from creating the account, the user is going to receive a welcome message from the app email (1-3) also he/she can review his/her profile by clicking on "My Account" button(1-4) and has the ability to change his/her account password by clicking on "Password" button (1-5).
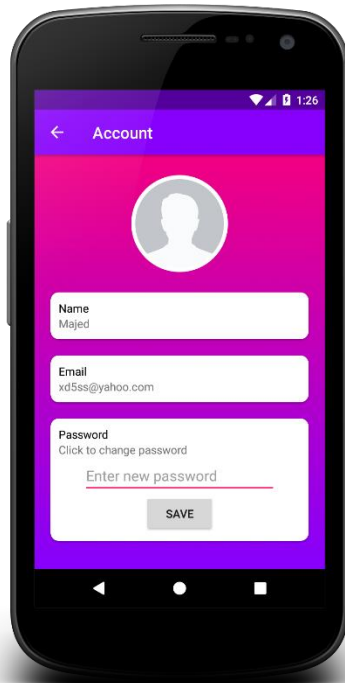

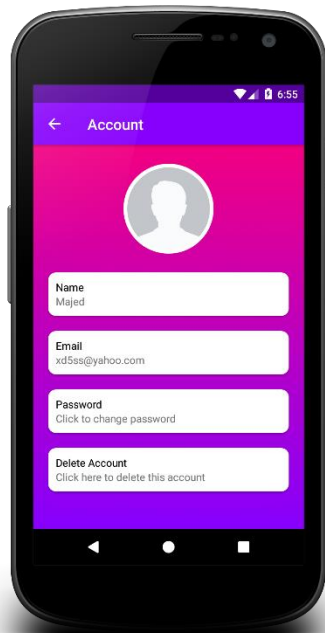

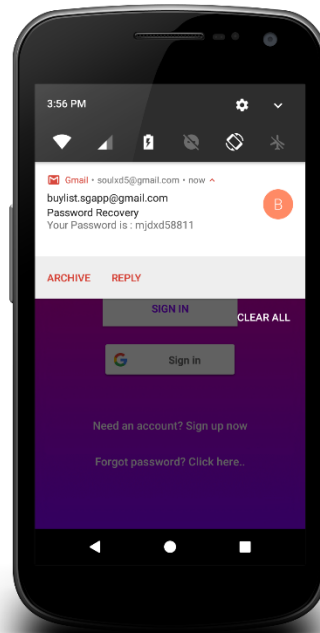

(1-3) (1-4) (1-5)

(1-5)

If the user changed his/her account password the user is going to receive a message from the app showing the new password (1-7). Also, the user is able to delete his/her account by clicking on "Delete Account" button (1-6).

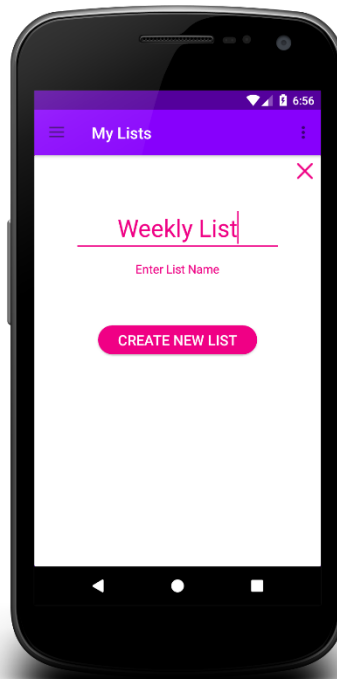

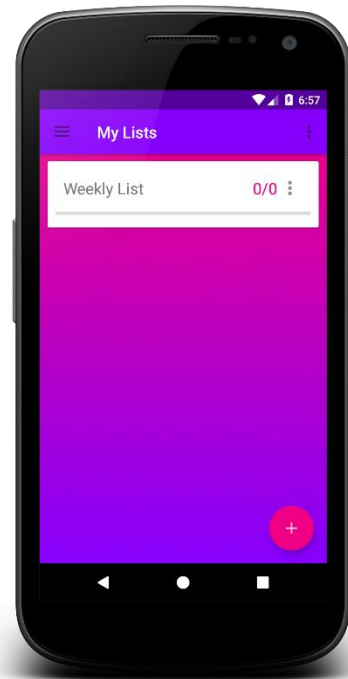

(1-6)

(1-7)

After installing the application and doing the sign in ways. Then the main UI screen of the app is showing (1-8). The user is able to create a shopping list by clicking on the adding "+" button then My Lists screen is showing (1-9). Too create a shopping list, the user should write the name of the shopping then the user he/she must click on the "Create NEW LIST" to create the list (1-10).

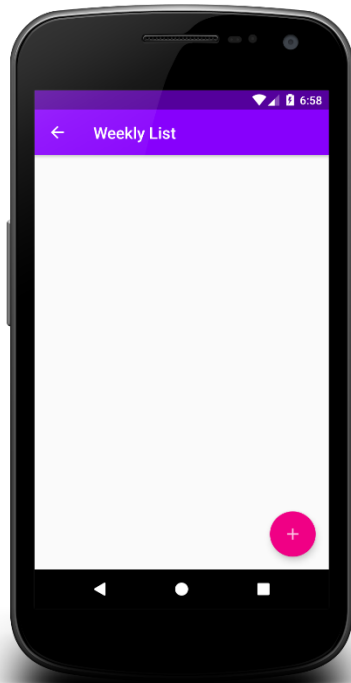

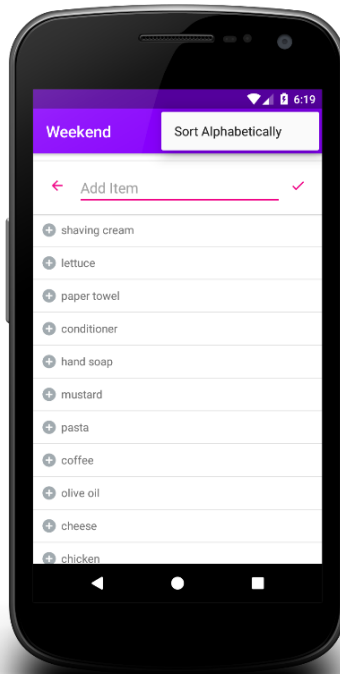

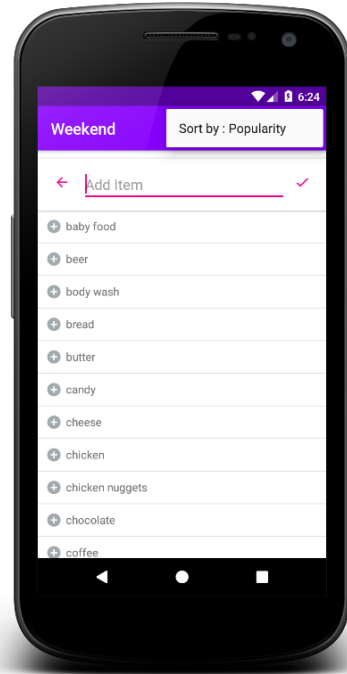

| (1-8) | (1-9) | (1-10) |

After creating the shopping list, the user can add item to the shopping list by clicking on the chosen list. Then a screen of the shopping list will show to add items (1-11). The user he/she can add items by clicking on the adding items button "+" (1-12). Also, the user can sort the items list from the menu button by "Alphabetically" (1-13) and "Popularity" (1-14).
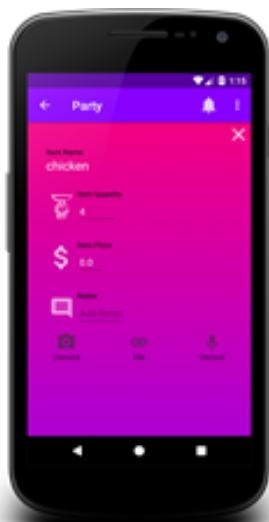

(1-12)   (1-13)   (1-14)

After adding the items to the shopping list, the user is able to check all, uncheck all and delete all the items from the shopping list (1-15). By clicking and hold on the item name, the screen of item details will be showing to the user to add more details and information (1-16). And to save the information the user must click on "X" button.

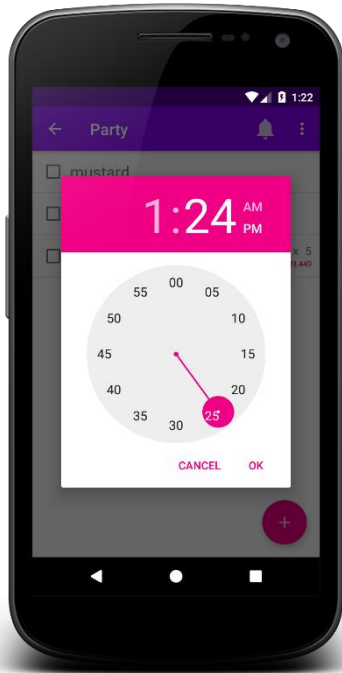

(1-15)   (1-16)

From the shopping list menu, the user is able to add a reminder to each list by clicking on reminder button. The user can add any date for reminder (). If the user added a reminder for a list, a reminder message will show to the user including the shopping list ().

(1-17)   (1-18)